The AGITG Annual Scientific Meeting is like a big, happy, empowering trans-national multidisciplinary team meeting where state of the art management and current trials are tossed around by key craft groups. For Radiation Oncologists, the RO specific session is invaluable. There is generally an invited speaker who comments on our art during a contouring workshop which is always interactive and inclusive. Several RO contouring guidelines have been published directly consequent to these workshops.

Associate Professor George Hruby
Radiation Oncologist
Genesis Cancer Care
Sydney